

Acts 7:1-60

June 2, 2019

We will have _____.

He spoke _____. (Mark 1:22)

We will have enemies if we _____ the truth strongly.

He spoke of their _____.

We will have enemies if we _____ _____ sin.

He spoke of his _____.

We will have enemies if we declare Jesus to be the _____.

We must be prepared to love our enemies.

We must not confuse love with _____ to sin.

We know that Stephen loved them because of what he _____ for them. (verse 60)

Consider five reasons why Stephen could love like this:

- He was _____ with the Holy Spirit.
(verse 55)
- He knew that God was _____.
(verse 55)

- He knew that God would _____ him.
(verse 56) (I Peter 2:21–23; Romans 12:19)

- He knew that Jesus was not to be _____ with. (verses 55-56, 60) (Revelation 22:12)

- He knew that he would soon be _____
Jesus. (verse 59) (Philippians 1:21-23)
